STAR TRACK

Aries (March 21-April 19)

Your animated interest in life and the life around you is optimistic and gives everyone who is around you a sense of optimism. You may look to review what you have and have not accomplished this year but interruptions of work seem to take control. Take notes of your goals and when you are with a trusted family member or a trusted supervisor, you will be able to ascertain exactly where you want to go next. You are strong in mind and body and are capable of much more than you think. In the workplace, you are able to sift through and find the shortest distance to an excellent outcome. Keep up the good work... With new resolve, you become generally optimistic about your prospects at home or work.

Taurus (April 20-May 20)

Probing discussions before work may have you realizing that some changes are coming in the workplace-you may have also seen a press release. Fresh insight comes to you through mass media-broadcasting, publishing, advertising-giving you a whole new perspective. You will make discoveries of how this affects you. For now, proceed as usual with your day. A change in chairman or president may be in the works, but should not change the way in which you work. Pay careful attention to the details today, especially if you work with legal matters. Be clear in your communications. You will learn new ways to handle everyday matters. There is harmony and ease in creative expression this evening. Let your light shine. Be ready for love.

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

Things are happening and the future of your career may depend on just how much you want to help the company for which you work to expand and grow. Decisions about financial advancement may come into play. Good fortune and luck surround you. It is easy for you to make correct decisions, find the right path and move forward where career and success are concerned. Life's problems seem manageable and easy to solve. Reserve, self-confidence, self-reliance and humility will be your best attitudes over the next few months and will encourage success. Enjoy laughter with others this afternoon. This is a delightful time to enjoy your support system: family and those who give you nourishment and encouragement.

Cancer (June 21-July 22)

Be aware of the distractions at work. This is one of those times when it is better to sell than to buy. This applies to material things, but extends to social and romantic relationships as well. This afternoon you will make the effort to improve the channels of understanding and appreciation between friends. It could be time now to clear up any past misunderstandings. This afternoon, take some time to enjoy some lighthearted, after work get-together with your friends. Stay open to the ideas of others. There is a need for new information, with fresh opinions and alternative ideas in order to fine-tune your goals. You and your family could join a recreation center-enjoy doing different things together regularly.

Leo (July 23-August 22)

Taking time to enjoy this April day before work may find you feeling upbeat and setting the mood for a positive day, all day long. This could mean an early morning walk or run for about fifteen minutes out and fifteen minutes back home. At work you may feel that you have just improved your talents to think clearly and perhaps above and beyond the usual. Where finances are concerned, moderation is the key. Of course, you will not want to obligate your finances until you know all the details and today, there are several opportunities to improve your odds. Partnerships are far more exciting than you thought. You are attracted to some unusual associates-listen and learn. You may be introduced to a new romance later today.

Virgo (August 23-September 22)

Other people may encourage you to make decisions prematurely today. Do not hesitate to delay decisions until you have had time to give important matters your full attention. Hastily conceived plans might seem attractive in the heat of the moment but might not look so smart when you have checked out the details. This afternoon you have enough interest in what you are doing for sustained work that allows you to coordinate or organize your life. You can bring into fruition particular projects or results from some psychological development. Be wise in your urge for independence. You are coming into a time of experimenting with new concepts. Having fun with the young people around you this evening can be quite enjoyable.

Libra (September 23-October 22)

You may discover exciting career opportunities. Your innovative ideas can gain the support of those in positions of control and responsibility. Your mind is shrewd and practical as well as original. It's a good time to begin new projects or a new job. You can also make progress if you are currently working today. It's a good time for approaching those in positions of power and authority with your creative ideas. You feel efficient and comfortable with your colleagues and friends. Your happy emotional outlook makes you popular. It's a good time for romantic and marriage relationships. This is a favorable time for family gatherings. Family relationships improve. Take it easy in the evenings this week-there is much work ahead for this next week.

Scorpio (October 23-November 19)

It's a good time to resolve any difficulties that keep you from your goals. You will see improvements in many areas of your life... You appropriately feel honor and pride. After your workday has ended, you and your friends may decide it has been too long since everyone gathered in a group and had fun together. You will help plan a get-together for the near future. This may mean a camping trip or sports competition or any number of things that create an opportunity to gather and get caught up on each other's life situation. You may even see this as a reunion of sorts. Avoid impulsive gambling or speculation for now. You may be prone to romantic infatuations; careful. You have the opportunity to make responsible choices; listen first.

Sagittarius (November 22-December 19)

Jumping into the flow of work today should be an easy challenge. Change is on the horizon, however, and you can see it coming. You are coming into a time of experimenting with new concepts and putting aside the old and learning new methods of working. Progressive people and idealistic groups or concepts play a more important role in your life. A neighborhood crime watch or community organization meeting is planned this evening. You could be really interested in the political things that are going on in your city; there are places to volunteer your talents. The process of future planning is successful and meets everyone's idea of what they wanted for future changes in the neighborhood. Compromising and cooperation bring positive results.

Capricorn (December 22-January 19)

It takes diplomacy, tact and patience to negotiate some strong feelings during an afternoon meeting. Acting on impulse without sufficient regard for risks can create harm. Slow down and really think about what you are saying-you will see positive results. After work, you may enjoy spending some time at the library. Family members have a difference of opinion about religion and you help to find some research and viewpoints for discussion. You may find yourself searching for the deeper meaning of life and how it relates to you. Your no-nonsense nature comes under review and you learn to be more spiritual and yielding to other people. This evening you will enjoy joking around with the young people in your family or neighborhood.

Aquarius (January 20- February 18)

A new sense of self, a more assertive personal style and a more dynamic approach to life are the hallmarks of this time. Work challenges move along better than usual. Doubts fade into the background and you are encouraged to do research. Rather than just accepting that which you have been taught you would begin to seek answers from more than one intelligent source. Getting the facts and making sure that people get correct information can make all the difference in the world-and any shortcomings in these areas can raise some real problems. Relaxing with your friends and joking around in positive ways are part and parcel of what makes up this evening. You could be included in some team competition tonight.

Pisces (February 19-March 20)

You may decide to find work that is less stressful this year. You may not make this change right away but instead you stay aware and alert to any changes that look positive. You may prefer to look for work that has more rewards mentally than monetarily. At least there will be less pressure this year to earn top money. Becoming an independent contractor may be more appealing for now. This is a long-time process that you will not want to change overnight, but you will feel that inner determination. Avoid changes that you know could cause stress on your physical body. It's time for action; your destiny is in your hands. This evening you may decide to relax a bit and play some computer games with a young person in your family.
