Kuwait Marriott Hotels celebrate Global Customer Appreciation Week

As part of Marriott's Global Customer Appreciation Week, Kuwait Marriott Hotels held a glamorous event to thank their loyal guests and partners for their business throughout 2017. The event took place at the prestigious Al-Thuraya Ballroom, located on the 16th floor at the JW Marriott Kuwait, and was attended by more than 170 VIP guests from the biggest companies in Kuwait and members of the local media.

The beautiful garden-themed party transformed Al-Thuraya Ballroom into a stunning floral fantasy. The event kicked off by a speech given by Samer Gerges, the Cluster Director of Sales at Kuwait Marriott Hotels, in which he thanked all the guests for their support to Marriott Hotels and for being a part of the Global Customer Appreciation Week 2017 grand celebration.

George Aoun, Cluster General Manager of Marriott Hotels in Kuwait also took the stage to welcome everyone and thank them for attending the Global Customer Appreciation Week 2017 Gala Dinner and for being loyal partners to Marriott Hotels in Kuwait and around the world.

After that, the attendees were treated to a mouthwatering selection of international dishes, and enjoyed breathtaking performances delivered by a live band. Aoun said "We are delighted to celebrate the Global Customer Appreciation Week (GCAW) 2017 in a different way this year. This is a great opportunity for us to express our appreciation to our valued customers for their continuous support and loyalty."

Other Global Customer Appreciation Week initiatives included a wide range of sales activities such as telemarketing campaign designed to call and personally thank all Marriott guests for their business. Visiting companies and delivering Certificates of Appreciation by the Sales team and members of the Executive Committee, including the Cluster General Manager. Also, the team organized a 'Spirit to Serve' activity to clean some areas in Kuwait as part of their ongoing efforts to support the local community. All under the theme of 'Unrivalled Experiences. Made Together.'

Wendy's Middle East opens 4th restaurant in Kuwait

Wendy's Middle East, operated by Alghanim Industries, one of the largest privately-owned companies in the region, recently opened its fourth store in Kuwait, located at The Avenues Mall food court. In celebration of the opening day a ribbon cutting ceremony took place with Wendy and the Frosty Man mascots in attendance to keep the little ones entertained, and customers who visited enjoyed free creamy Frosty ice creams as a treat on the first day.

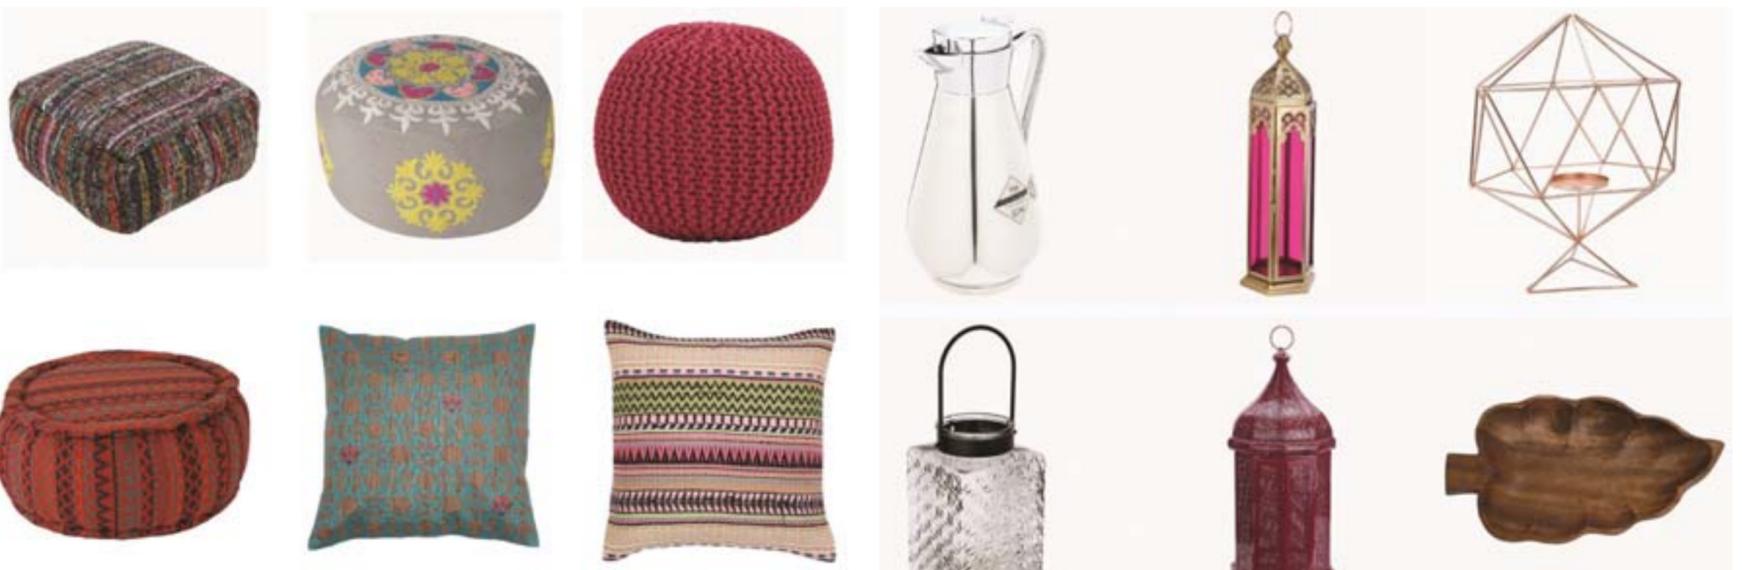

Shoppers at The Avenues Mall can now take a break and enjoy a variety of Wendy's beef and chicken burgers, made with 100 percent Halal Australian Angus beef or 100 percent Whole Chicken fillet. Wendy's only uses quality ingredients to produce great tasting menu options for its customers, having consistently made its mark with its 'deliciously different' attitude in the Food and Beverage market. In addition to this new location, Wendy's Middle East has three other restaurants in Kuwait, located on Blajat Street in Salmiya, the Marina Mall and across from Al-Kout Mall in Fahaheel.

Phil Broad, Vice President of Food and Beverage at Alghanim Industries, said: "Our primary focus is to offer the renowned Wendy's customer experience through great tasting food and amazing hospitality. The latest restaurant opening at The Avenues Mall marks our fourth restaurant in twelve months as we continue to expand our brand in the Kuwait food scene."

All meals from Wendy's Middle East are made with quality ingredients, served fresh for every order. Wendy's lettuce and fresh tomatoes are locally sourced, and its hamburgers are made with 100 percent Halal Australian Angus Beef. For more information about Wendy's, visit www.wendysme.com.
