KUWAIT: Kuwait Finance House (KFH) has organized an honoring ceremony for its voluntary team. The team has succeeded in executing more than 90 voluntary, educational and awareness assignments in 29 days as part of the program 'Be Part of the Good Deeds Month 4'. This honoring ceremony comes to incarnate the most beautiful pictures of enhancement and communication between operational management and employees and to be the motive for further giving and dedication.

The honoring ceremony was held at the 4 Seasons Hotel in presence of KFV GCEO Mazin Saad Al-Nahedh and Head of Group Sharia Board Dr Sayed Mohammed Al-Sayed Abdul-Razzak Al-Tabtaba'e in addition to other high rank officials at the bank.

KFV GCEO Mazin Al-Nahedh praised the performance and efforts of KFV Voluntary Team during various social activities, events and initiatives organized during the holy month of Ramadan as part of its program "Be Part of the Good Deeds Month 4" which has achieved major success, admiration and encouragement from the public, thus reiterating KFV commitment and dedication to social responsibility and enhancement of voluntary work concepts in accordance with social values and sustainable development goals.

Dr Tabtaba'e praised the efforts of the voluntary team and reiterated the significance of voluntary work in achieving benefit for both individuals and society. He indicated that KFV is a highly reputable Islamic financial institution not only as a school of business but also as a school of moral conduct.

He conveyed his thanks and appreciation to executive management for their support to these initiatives, thus highlighting the necessity to spread this kind of activities at the group level to participate in social growth and spread voluntary work culture on a higher scale. KFV voluntary team has succeeded in executing more than 90 initiatives within 29 days as part of the program "Be Part of the Good Deeds Month 4", the matter which has contributed to the enhancement of volunteering spirit for youth and deepened and strengthened the concept of giving among society members.

KFV voluntary team was active daily in more than 5 locations to perform various initiatives including the distribution of 27 thousand meals to fasting people, providing service to visitors of the grand mosque during the last 10 days of Ramadan, distribution of girgiran, visiting hospitals and caring homes in addition to many other initiatives which have met wide acceptance and admiration at the society level.

KFV ensures to perform its social responsibility in the best possible manner thus aiming to cover all society tiers through its work plans and programs which include several aspects e.g. educational, health, awareness, environment and special needs in addition to youth and sports, to achieve a sustainable and comprehensive development.
