ACK, Boeing sign MoA addressing Kuwait's aviation training needs

The Australian College of Kuwait (ACK) signed memorandum of agreement with Boeing in line with ACK's objective to support the aviation sector in Kuwait from all aspects. Together, ACK and Boeing are evaluating avenues on how both parties can best contribute to the execution of Kuwait's Vision 2035, via an investment in the aviation sector.

Through the agreement, Boeing will provide its training technology solution, keeping the majority of the pilot training programs in Kuwait. From its end, ACK will be offering Boeing the opportunity to deliver "specially maintenance" courses at ACK campus.

Mr Sager Al-Sharhan, Deputy Managing Partner - Industry - said: "Boeing is a world leading organization that we are proud to work with, to give our students the opportunity to have high quality and international training at the premises of ACK. This agreement will contribute to achieve ACK's strategic direction, vision and mission and to prove ACK Chairman's - Mr Abdullah Al-Sharhan - philosophy of enabling human potential within a culture of care."

INVITE

You are cordially invited to our Tafseer class (Divine Wisdom from the Last Testament) on May 7, 2018 at 7:00 pm. In this class, we will focus on Surat At-Taghabun (Mutual Loss and Gain), verses 1 - 2. We will discuss the general message of the surah, the implied meaning of mutual loss and gain, and who will lose and who will gain. We will also explore how the realization that Allah (SWT) sees and knows everything impacts our lives, and the benefits of believing that Allah (SWT) is our sustainer and provider. Finally, we will discuss various types of disbelief, and the destiny of children who die before puberty.

Hardee's announces its third winner of 'Go Large' campaign

Citizen Ahmad Tawfeeq Abdulwahed Abdullah won a white 2018 Chevy Camaro after participating in the Hardee's mega festival "Go Large" campaign by simply ordering a spicy chicken felet through Talabat.com. Hardee's Kuwait have allocated four 2018 Chevy Camaros and 16 Iphone mobiles for customers participating in its campaign.

Ahmad Tawfeeq was very happy as his participation was unintentional. "I am a loyal customer of Hardee's and am always drawn by promotions made by Hardee's. I was shocked when I received a phone call telling me I am the winner." Director of Hardee's Kuwait chain of restaurants Mohammad Abdrabbu said: "Hardee's is keen on improving its products while maintaining top quality, adding that the latest meal "fire house chicken" was well received by customers, adding that a powerful campaign will be launched on the occasion of the holy month of Ramadan with large discounts and will be exclusive for Kuwait only."

LuLu Financial Group commences operations in Hong Kong

LuLu Financial Group, the leading financial services and payments solution brand, started its operations in Hong Kong with the inauguration of their head office in Kowloon. The branch was inaugurated by Adeb Ahmed, Managing Director, LuLu Financial Group in the presence of Surendran Ammitathody, VP-APAC, other senior officials and dignitaries. The group acquired 100 percent ownership of a local financial services company in Hong Kong, adding five more branches to its global network. Branded as "LuLu Money" in Hong Kong, this is LuLu Financial Group's tenth country of operation and second in the APAC region, after Philippines.

Speaking on the occasion, Adeb Ahmed said, "We are extremely delighted to start our operations in Hong Kong. The Asia Pacific region is home to some of the most dynamic economies and Hong Kong is one of the most strategic markets.

We are excited to be part of the region's growth story." "Further to offering our world class services, that has made us one of the most sought after financial services organisation in the world, we will be reaching out to a larger audience through our innovative digital platforms that have been created in-house," added Adeb Ahmed.

"LuLu Money" retail outlets will offer money transfer, retail currency exchange and import and export of currencies. The company is also foraying into the digital space, with an aim to revolutionize the fintech environment in the region. The upcoming "LuLu Money" app will have various features including instant online transactions, payment tracking in real time and payment history, among others. With plans to move nearly 30% of its transactions on to the digital platform by 2020, LuLu Financial Group is committed to remain on the digital fast track.

LuLu Celebrate opens in Al-Rai

LuLu Celebrate, an exclusive apparel division of regional retail heavyweight LuLu Hypermarket, was inaugurated on May 3, 2018, at the Al-Rai outlet by renowned Indian television serial actress, Laya, in the presence of LuLu Kuwait management and a large gathering of shoppers and well-wishers.

To celebrate the occasion, a special promotion on sarees, churidars and lehenga material is being held that allows a shopper to buy one saree or other dress material and purchase the second item at 50 percent discount. Among the sarees on offer during the promotion period are such exclusive sarees such as kancheepuram, upada, binny silk, raw cotton, villae cottons and many more. The saree promotion extends to all LuLu Hypermarket outlets in Kuwait, with the exception of Salmiya and Jahra.

The huge crowds visiting LuLu Hypermarket branches during the promotion are a further attestation of the strong loyalty that shoppers attach to the LuLu brand. It also underlines shoppers' confidence that the brand continues to offer the widest range of high-quality products at the most competitive prices.
