

Stars

Aries (March 21-April 19)

You don't appreciate someone you care for being secretive with you today. This could be someone at work whom you've befriended and now you feel that person is going behind your back. Let it go. They're in control when you're worrying about something they've done. This is a time to use your imagination and to be creative. You have both and can use them logically. This makes work more interesting and better for you and all involved. If you have a mate, this is the time to discuss pressing events you want to resolve, Aries. Make the most of this wonderful day.

Taurus (April 20-May 20)

This isn't your best day but you can make the best of this day if you know how to approach it. Stay away from long-winded conversations at work that need explicit detail. Try to work alone on items that come by rote such as filing or doing something you do daily that doesn't take much thought. Only include people you trust explicitly to spend time with you today, Taurus. That should keep you between the yellow lines on the work road. You're not quite up to par and you feel it. Take it easy and enjoy tonight with loved ones.

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

Accomplishment needs to be acknowledged for you now. That's what you're working towards. You want to be seen as just the right person for just the right job whether its at home or work. Intelligence rules your day now and makes you feel proud. Communication may not be your best friend right now but working alone and finishing the job is. In the same vein though management is one of your strong suits today. Treat your love life like the job but without you trying to control the one you love, Gemini. You'll get a nice surprise tonight.

Cancer (June 21-July 22)

This day is a great time to make the hard decisions. You're mentally acute, able to think quickly and concisely. You also have just the right amount of sympathy and understanding it takes to be a person who can help another through any trouble, emotional or otherwise. See, you're the whole package. You need to be appreciated too, Cancer, and you are even when you don't think so. Work mates are glad you're in the mood to stand up for your work decisions because it makes work run smoother for them. Take time for family and friends later tonight.

Leo (July 23-August 22)

You may become too aggressive for those at work because your energy level is over the top. Besides you're thinking of what you want to accomplish through this plentiful energetic time. A younger worker may give you issues when he or she disagrees with you on something that should be your decision to make. This person could be trying to make a name for themselves. There is no advice you'll take now. Just try to be cool since you're already frustrated, Leo. Keeping your mind on the issues is hard enough now.

Virgo (August 23-September 22)

Don't allow yourself to backslide on your values. You want to keep them the same even if it appears, you'll be penalized for it. Today is the time to go out for that new job. Get your confidence up and make the appointment to see your new boss. Don't try to appear too independent though. That might not be the right step now. Your lover and others for whom you care can help you make this a happy, celebratory time. Allow it and believe.

Libra (September 23-October 22)

Items you put into effect today might be changed tomorrow or the next day. Though you're working and have a fast-paced mind, it's hard to decide what you really need to do. You're on your own today. Friends and family seem to be in the woodwork without really getting close to you now. It seems you're taking time off from those you love to day dream and think without the hindrance of others needs. Even though you're in this mood you still have one special person that you really appreciate. That person may compliment you on some aspect of your life while you shake your head wondering why.

Scorpio (October 23-November 21)

Work hard. What you want is in the making in the material sense. You've started already and you should have fulfillment soon. This seems to be something you want badly now. You seem like a mother bird who has to build her nest before she can have her babies. Deep inside you need security in order to feel as if you've matured and gotten what you really crave. Love is what you want and if you don't have it now, you're surely putting out the vibes to bring it to you.

Sagittarius (November 22-December 21)

You have a lot of nervous energy that you can lavish on a lover or a child. Romance is an outlet that you need now to keep your lid on well. It helps dissipate that edgy energy you're feeling. You're coming into a creative phase right now that can help you but don't make major decisions at this time. Get a hobby that you like. Watch out for that hobby if you decide your favorite pastime is making vodka martinis. That could be a sign you need to get another favorite activity.

Capricorn (December 22-January 19)

Someone in authority or a person you've partnered with may have you rethinking the working relationship today. You may not appreciate their lackadaisical approach to work wherein they don't mind telling a small untruth in order to get their way. That's not your way of doing business and you don't expect another to use you to do anything dishonest. This causes you to look your life over especially where work is concerned when it's work involving this person. You may think about finding another field of endeavor without this person around.

Aquarius (January 20- February 18)

Yesterday's news has you working even harder, expanding the manner in which you're doing things at work and even giving those work lectures you used to hate. You call together a group of workers just so you can get down to the psychological aspects of the project your working with now. Getting ideas from others in your group helps you to see how to use the conservative approach to make this job work great for you and your work group, Aquarius. Of course, others see you as just the right person for the job and that goes to your need for respect from those with whom you work. Relish this time and celebrate the small stuff later tonight.

Pisces (February 19-March 20)

You're in a rare good mood. You find yourself appreciating and really looking at someone who is older and an authority figure. Be careful here. Don't love too much or you could find yourself in more hot water than you need for cleaning. An easy manner in conversing with others helps you get your point across today, Pisces. A good friend might show you just how good he or she is today by standing up for you when it's least expected. You may hear about it from another. That's the best kind of friend to have. This is really a good day to celebrate being who you are.
