

Models show creations for 'La Bourjoisie' luxury fashion house in Kuwait.

'La Bourjoisie'

celebrated the launch of the Spring /Summer 2016 collection

“La Bourjoisie” luxury fashion house with the Lebanese Gulf combination that carry visions of a youth group of designers, launches their Spring /Summer 2016 collection, in the Hilton Mangaf, in the presence of the owner of the house Iman Al-Hamad, General Manager Antoine Salameh, who welcomed the audience of journalists and media workers and dignitaries in the community and lovers of fashion.

Salameh pointed in his brief speech that the new selection that included many of the precious pieces that every lady and fashion lovers must have, which highlights the femininity of women and live with them for a long time it is already “night of one thousand and one nights” with pieces dazzling super beauty to view full elegance fit and the finest concerts occasions.

(From left) Fashion designer Nadim Sodeiha, (third left) General Manager Antoine Salameh and (fourth left) designer Charbel Azar with guests.