

A hiker surveys
Snowdonia from
Glyder Fach

MOUNTAINS, QUARRIES AND SURF LAGOONS: ADVENTURES IN NORTH WALES

With its grand mountains, rolling hills and stunning coastline, the castle-packed, Welsh-speaking heartland of North Wales has always been an epic place for the active. And the addition of new facilities - including an innovative surf lagoon and record-breaking zip lines - to those age-old charms has created arguably the best place for adventure sports in Britain.