

'SERIOUS FAILINGS' BY RUSSIA IN BESLAN MASSACRE

STRASBOURG, France: The European Court of Human Rights ruled yesterday there were "serious failings" in Russia's handling of the Beslan school siege by Chechen rebels in 2004 in which over 330 people were killed, many of them children. The court said although Russian authorities had information that an attack was being planned on a school in North Ossetia, they failed to do enough to disrupt the plot and had not sufficiently protected the hostages. Russia reacted furiously to the judgment, saying it was "absolutely unacceptable".

The school was stormed on September 1, 2004 by militants demanding the withdrawal of Russian troops from the war-torn republic of Chechnya.

The attackers herded 1,100 people including 800 children into a gymnasium and rigged the building with explosives. —AFP
