STAR TRACK

Aries (March 21-April 19)

The changing of your mind over and over could give you a clue as to what's going to happen today. Irritation with others at work gives you the next hint. Quick thinking and wanting to act adds to the sense of urgency you feel that others may not feel now. This isn't a great time for you and it's the end of the month. That's the best part. Maybe next month will be more successful than today. You can talk others into anything now but you don't want to even attempt it. Try to go home early today and get some time alone, if possible. That'll help.

Taurus (April 20-May 20)

Dark, secret thoughts pop up into your mind where you can't seem to let them go. Be careful here at work today. You may have the desire to tell your boss, in a not so nice way, where to go now. Be quiet. You'll be glad you did later on. If you can take the day off, then do so. If not, try to go home early. Don't allow coworkers to talk you into saying anything regarding your boss today. Neither of you may be in the mood to shake this one off. Be calm and try to relax as much as possible if you have to work all day. Later, surround yourself with real friends.

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

Be safe with your words today. You don't want to damage relationships at work or at home. Emotional flare ups could occur easily now. Sex, or lack of it, might play a role in your irritation today. Fighting with your lover won't help. Besides this is a special day you want to remember with fondness not anger. As the song says, "Let it go." A love of what you consider law and order brings you to look at others more harshly now. We can't all be alike. Otherwise the world would be very boring. Sing the song and enjoy celebrating with friends later.

Cancer (June 21-July 22)

You tend to overlook your own needs now because you feel they're not necessary in the scheme of things. Energy dominates your world. You come across as very assertive. Communication with others comes easily. Work is all it's about for you at this time. You do have to remember your needs too though. You could burn out if you don't. It's easy to see what you value now. Appreciation is in high focus and you thank the powers that be for giving you what you want. That's a good thing to do since you've gotten what you desired. It will bring you more of the same. What you think you are, you are. Keep on keeping on.

Leo (July 23-August 22)

You've been feeling an outpouring of independence for a while lately but with this culminating today, you're in more of a mood having to do with your freedom. Liberty to act as you'd like, to do your work on your own terms and to enjoy your homelife too in a manner fitting your needs has been and is your goal today. You've turned over the apple cart, so to speak, for almost the whole month. Now you can reap what you've sown although you've seen a difference there too. Now is the time to get more serious about what you need in your life and to go after it. It'll only make you more prosperous in every manner of your life.

Virgo (August 23-September 22)

You need roots. The longing you feel and remembering other times and places make you want more in the family area. If you don't already have a spouse, you may soon. You can't seem to help yourself right now. Though you still have peace in your heart, you're looking at expanding your love life to include a permanent partner who'll be there when others aren't. You don't even care about your work life today. As a matter of fact, you'd rather stay home with those you love. That may not be done easily though. If you have to work, make sure you get through the day without squabbles to ruin your sense of peace.

Libra (September 23-October 22)

Everybody wants to be around you now. Be grateful for that. You get compliments from those with whom you spend time. This isn't necessarily just at work. Being the end of the month may be the best time to sort of party at work and that's what you feel is happening today because of all the kudos. You're quieter than usual but that's not bad either. It has you looking humble and those singing your praises appreciate you even more. Make this an easy work day. Go home and be with those you love. You should receive more attention and love there.

Scorpio (October 23-November 21)

Sympathy and understanding are more important to you now. Perhaps it's because you need them from others at this point in time. Getting out and walking may help your state of mind and give you some much needed exercise too. Going against convention and tradition can bring on problems you hadn't realized you'd elicit by saying or doing what you did to garner it. This could cause problems you can't repair anytime soon. A little romance is something you think may do you some good. If you haven't gotten rid of your lover completely since yesterday, perhaps a little make-up sex will suffice.

Sagittarius (November 22-December 19)

Be thoughtful before talking. You could have a run in with someone older who is an authority figure. That's never good. Try to work without being noticed today. Later go home to family, pets and your lover, if you have one now, to enjoy people you know who feel you can do no wrong. Maybe a dinner on the patio is a good place to wind down from today's long work day. Make the conversation around the table more interesting by conveying some travel stories or listening to something that you haven't heard before. Be sure to invite a friend you know brings you good comedic information.

Capricorn (December 22-January 19)

Your sense of value may be stressed today. Things are not as they appear. Stay away from buying that new car. You're on the brink of imagination and practicality. Switching back and forth from those two items leave you appearing almost drunk. You'll find yourself thinking of lost love at some time today, even wishing for that person to surface so that you can relive a little part of your past. Romanticizing what was leaves you with an image of something that perhaps didn't really have all the good things you think. A ghost is most always a perfect person after having died.

Aquarius (January 20- February 18)

Start your day off with sweet loving from your wonderful lover. That will set the tone for your day if you'll allow it. Power and control are on your mind now. Coworkers may find that a little hard to take but you can put them at ease easily. Investing may be the very thing you take on next because it allows you to gamble against those who supposedly know best. If you do your homework and find that you're good with research at knowing which stock to pick, you may find yourself in stocks as well. Healing arts are something that interests you now too.

Pisces (February 19-March 20)

Your love or a great friend whom you think should know your ways and what you consider good in life, seems to turn against you or so you think. You may take what they say in the wrong way now. Their emotions seem to oppose what you believe to be right. Your feelings have been part of a quick temper lately and this is no different than what you've already experienced this week. The only difference is that it is with someone for which you care and you can't seem to let it go. Feeling unappreciated and unwanted can cause a rift in your friendship or love.
