STAR TRACK

Aries (March 21-April 19)

You're satisfied sleeping late, eating a great, maybe not so healthy, breakfast with loved ones and vegging out the rest of the day. Things you feel good about are on your mind now which adds to the enjoyment of your day. Making the most of your life is still in the active process of changing and not just because it's another day. Aries, but because you're working on it even now. Good conversation and learning new manners of living is part of the satisfaction you encourage for emotional growth now. Get in the hot tub with your lover or take a long luxurious bath tonight and dream of things yet to come.

Taurus (April 20-May 20)

Home life is the center point of your life now. You want to make sure it's everything it's cracked up to be. You need this part of your life free of emotional dissatisfaction and you're willing to work hard to keep it strong. This is a time you can speak eloquently and be understood even better. Share with your lover what they mean to you even though you may have problems allowing others to know how much they mean to you. Fear shouldn't be a motivator now. You need the security and you have a manner of speaking creatively to let your chosen partner know how much you care. Perhaps dinner and a movie later for a nice, comfortable date.

Gemini (May 21-June 20)

On this Sunday, put on some good music and dance with your lover. Enjoy the time you two have together while letting your troubles ease away. This is your day. It's not a time to worry. De-stress doing items you and your romantic interest love today. Take some time outdoors. Nature is a soother. Finish off your day in bed doing what you're good at, Gemini, or make it your whole day. A little love never hurts anyone. Enjoy a midnight snack with only the light of the refrigerator to keep you two company.

Cancer (June 21-July 22)

You feel tranquil and are loving it today. Try doing something to relax more with those you love although you may not want to stay with them all day long if they belong in your home. Take some time to enjoy a good nap or catch up on a favorite television program. You may not be really watching your TV but you can act like it and keep most intrusion to a minimum. Don't be surprised if you're not asked to intervene in a family hot discussion while trying to take it easy. Cancer. Your decision will be seen as accurate and should call a truce to the issue without destroying your calm.

Leo (July 23-August 22)

Stability is what satisfies your needs right now, that and your life's partner in bed with you giving the same gift of love you needed so much yesterday. That's your meaning for having a great life today. That and people you love other than your lover in communication with you. Get out and walk around the yard or down the street. Do something that stretches your muscles and allows you not to think by letting your mind drift. These are some of your most peaceful times. Enjoy this beautiful day, Leo.

Virgo (August 23-September 22)

You feel a need to be part of something larger than life. You may even be thinking of getting married if you're not already. You feel as if you're living two lives now or stuck in two places, one is getting everything you want and the other is being unsure you can make it work. Both are at work in your life now. Although you think of marriage you also want to investigate more in order to see just who can really make you happy you're settling down. It's not that you're fickle, Virgo. It's just that you want to be sure you're making the right decision.

Libra (September 23-October 22)

A gift from someone special might include concert tickets for your favorite musical artist which will brighten your day especially if that friend comes with you. Your quieter side is showing now and invites those you love to want to get closer if they're not wondering what you're up to now. What they don't know is you're trying to contain the war waging within you. What they don't know is they really want to keep your Pandora's Box closed or more than they ever thought they wanted could be unleashed from you, Libra. Keeping the lid on your sensitive emotions is a good thing for you to do now.

Scorpio (October 23-November 21)

This day is much like yesterday only you've gotten a sense of peace from enjoying your day and having the option of doing the same today. You may even put on some favorite music and dance around your house with your pet dance partner. Though you're playing, Scorpio, you've got the beginnings of plans in your mind. You want security in all forms and it's creeping into the outskirts of your consciousness. Material acquisition is only a part of what you need. You want the white picket fence and the love that goes along with it. Get it settled in your mind so that you can visualize and create your future in the present.

Sagittarius (November 22-December 21)

Perhaps it's because you're home today enjoying your solitude if you're alone because you feel more peaceful than usual. It could be that you've got good music by your favorite artist playing or have some great classical music on so that you can clean house without thinking about much. Either way, this is a good time for you, Sagittarius. You really don't want to argue but you know that you could be set off quite easily if need be. That's why enjoying the music is particularly nice. Only invite friends and family to be around you who you know will keep the peaceful vibes going. Otherwise, it's you and your pets.

Capricorn (December 22-January 19)

You're feeling as if the stability in life you've craved is finally going to stay. This gives you great peace and happiness. You probably will be meeting with someone who brings the promise of more material gain today as well. The Midas touch seems to be your forte now, Capricorn. Keep believing. People far away may be supplying solid blessings in some form which makes you glad you invested. You may think about taking a travel tour that teaches in some form. Anything you do will only help you to accomplish more.

Aquarius (January 20-February 18)

You're still wrestling with the emotional part of your marital or lover relationship. Sex will only prolong the exposure. Do I, don't I is the question. This may have a basis in the fact that you've been getting attention from others at work or from a very good friend. If you want a change, then it stays on your mind. You've gone through a time where you began to want to break habits. Sometimes a loving relationship can develop unhappy habits that neither notices until it becomes apparent one or the other is unhappy. Aquarius, it takes two. Think before you act.

Pisces (February 19-March 20)

You've got it all going on today. From the mundane to the esoteric, it's in your wheelhouse. What's more? You know it. People want to listen and help out. You're not running towards gathering more people to your side, rather you watch to see what their reaction is going to be. New solutions to old problems are being resolved today. One of your younger family members seeks your assistance. You're glad you can help. You've been thinking about the solution and presentation for this problem for this particular loved one. Though you don't go along with the crowd you feel as if you've given this day your all. Enjoy. Get out and about doing something you love.
